John – hope all is well. Although ED is funded and making productions, my office is largely shutdown and Scott Sroka has been furloughed.

In light of this development, we are going to be moving to stay litigation in the case and to extend/hold in abeyance all current filing deadlines pending further order of the Court. We also propose to file a joint status report within 14 days of funding being restored with the parties' proposals on further proceedings in this matter. Our motion will expressly not seek to stay ED's FOIA processing or productions (as ED has funding). I think the most immediate filing deadline that will be affected by our motion will be the joint status report currently due on 1/18.

Consistent with Local Civil Rule 7(m), can you please let me know your position on this motion? Many thanks for your time and consideration.

Hi Jill, the 15th is fine with us. Just so you're aware, I would note that the judge's order technically says every 30 days, so it won't always be on the 14th of the month, but that's obviously not a big deal for us.

Best,
John

Attachments: OGC information re potential impact of partial government shutdown_LW response.docx

Hi Tracey,

Here is an update on my litigation and how the cases are/will be impacted by the partial government shutdown. Also, please see my comment in the attached document.

(FOIA case that I addressed in the attached document)

Democracy Forward Foundation v. U.S. Department of Education (Case No. 1:18-cv-0976 - DDC): The plaintiff submitted three FOIA requests to ED in March 2018. Each of the requests was related to the ED's Title IX guidance. ED has completed production of responsive documents and has provided the plaintiff with a draft Vaughn index. The parties narrowed the issues for briefing and proposed a briefing schedule including a motion for summary judgment deadline of 1/22/19. The court never implemented the proposed briefing schedule. We also filed an unopposed motion to stay due to the shutdown, which the court has yet to rule on.

(Other FOIA cases)

Stein v. CIA et al (Case No. 1:17-cv-00198- DDC): The defendants filed our opposition to plaintiff's motion for summary judgment and reply in support of defendants' motion for summary judgment on 12/21/18. The plaintiff's reply brief is due on 2/1/19. The defendants do not have any pending deadlines at this time.

National Consumer Law Center v. U.S. Department of Education (Case No. 1:18-cv-10763 – D.Ma.): The plaintiff made a FOIA request to ED in June 2017 for agency communications referencing California Association of Private Postsecondary Schools v. DeVos. The plaintiff's complaint alleges that ED failed to conduct a proper search and, therefore, failed to disclose responsive records. ED has completed a supplemental search and produced responsive documents to the plaintiff. The parties filed a motion to stay, and the motion was granted. Discovery is stayed until appropriations have been restored to DOJ or the stay has been lifted. The parties are required to file a joint status report within 28 days of the stay being lifted that includes a proposed schedule for further proceedings.

(EEOC)

I have been filing motions with the EEOC based on the deadlines established prior to the shutdown. Of course, proceedings are delayed due to the EEOC being closed as part of the shutdown.

Please let me know if any further information would be helpful.

Thank you,

Lauren

Hi Rob,

We don't have any deadlines set over the next 30 days for the Democracy Forward Foundation litigation. The parties filed a joint status report on 12/20/18. We proposed a briefing schedule that would begin with ED filing a motion for summary judgment on 1/22/19. However, the court has not implemented the parties' proposed briefing schedule, presumably due to the partial government shutdown. (b)(5)
